Rev. Clyde H. LeBlanc, S.J. President

Dear Friends, Students and Graduates of 1984,

Greetings in the Lord!

The future is now and 1984 — that Orwellian year of doom — is upon us. Big Brother is an all too real figure throughout the world, but fortunately for us, he is not as present as George Orwell feared for our society in his marvelous novel, 1984. Would that the world would take on the concept of Big Brotherhood that is alive in the halls of Jesuit College Prep. I look upon the Big Brother program developed here as a cornerstone of our community. It and our Senior Community Service program are two shining examples of the ideal of being "Men for Others." As I walk down the corridors and see the Seniors working hand in hand with Freshmen, I reflect proudly on the leadership qualities being developed here, and I pray truly that what is learned here by example can become infectious and spread to the greater communities that we are all involved in here — in Dallas and in our Churches.

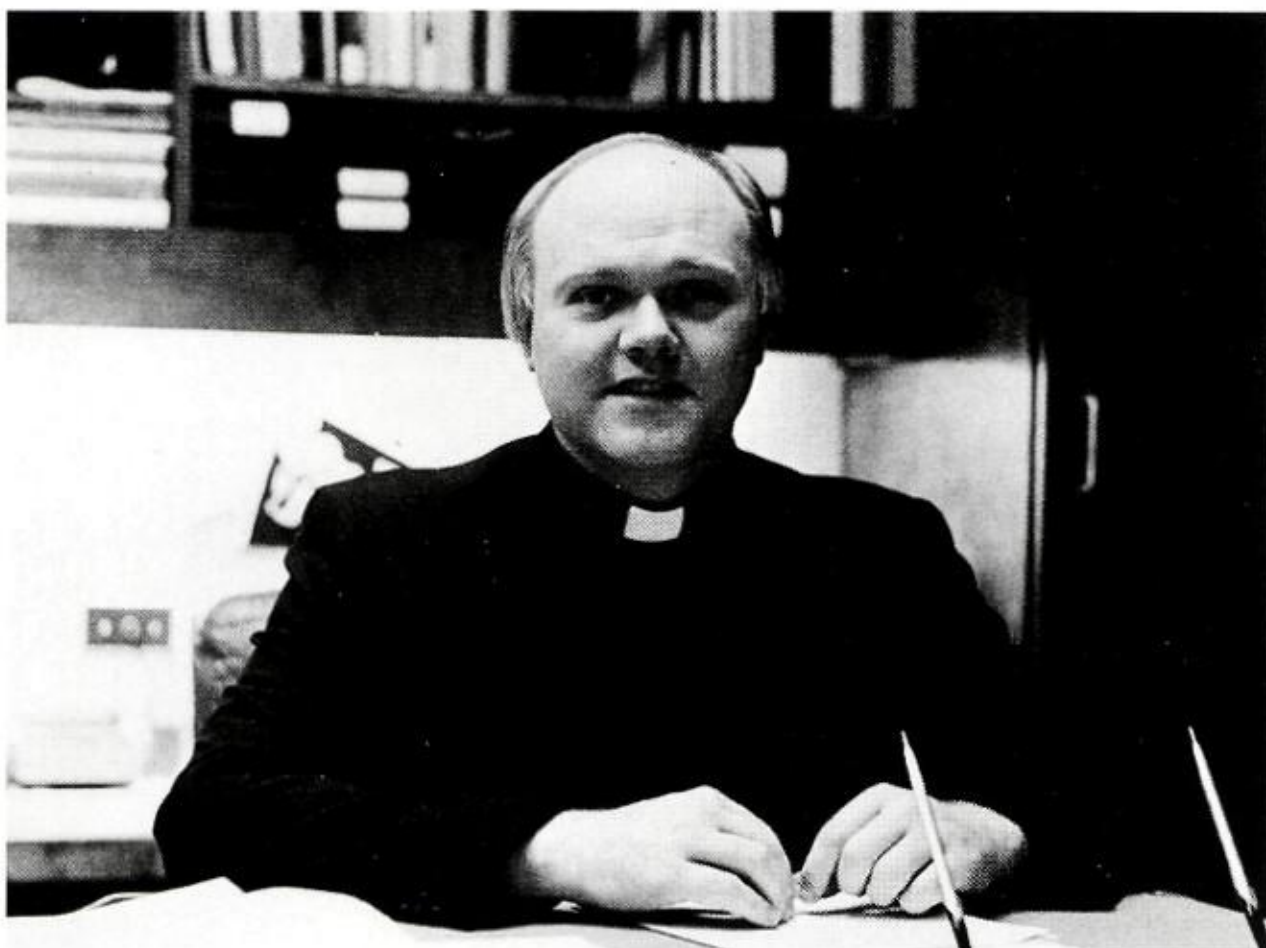

Much has happened and many developments have transpired during this school year, and the pages to follow will unfold the riches therein for all to see and to remember many years hence.

May this message find you in good health and in good faith, even closer to the Lord than you were during your days here at Inwood Road.

Christ's Peace be with you.

Rev. Brian F. Zinnamon, S.J. Principal

To the Jesuit Graduates of the Class of 1984

This yearbook is a reminder of the idealism you have developed here at Jesuit and a symbol of your future hopes. You take with you many memories of people, places and events. Most importantly, you have been a class striving to become "Men for Others." You have undertaken the task of community service enthusiastically and have been a source of joy to many in the Dallas area. The old people you helped to move always seemed to live on the second floor. You have demonstrated your loving care and service to the underclassmen especially through tutoring and the Big Brother Program. You have led the way in building school spirit in our student body. Always remember the Senior Community Days and your Senior retreat, a time of God's healing power for us all.

God has blessed each of you richly with many talents and you have responded to His gifts by channeling your energy in a positive direction. Your future happiness will depend on how well you use your talents and allow God to be the source of your life.

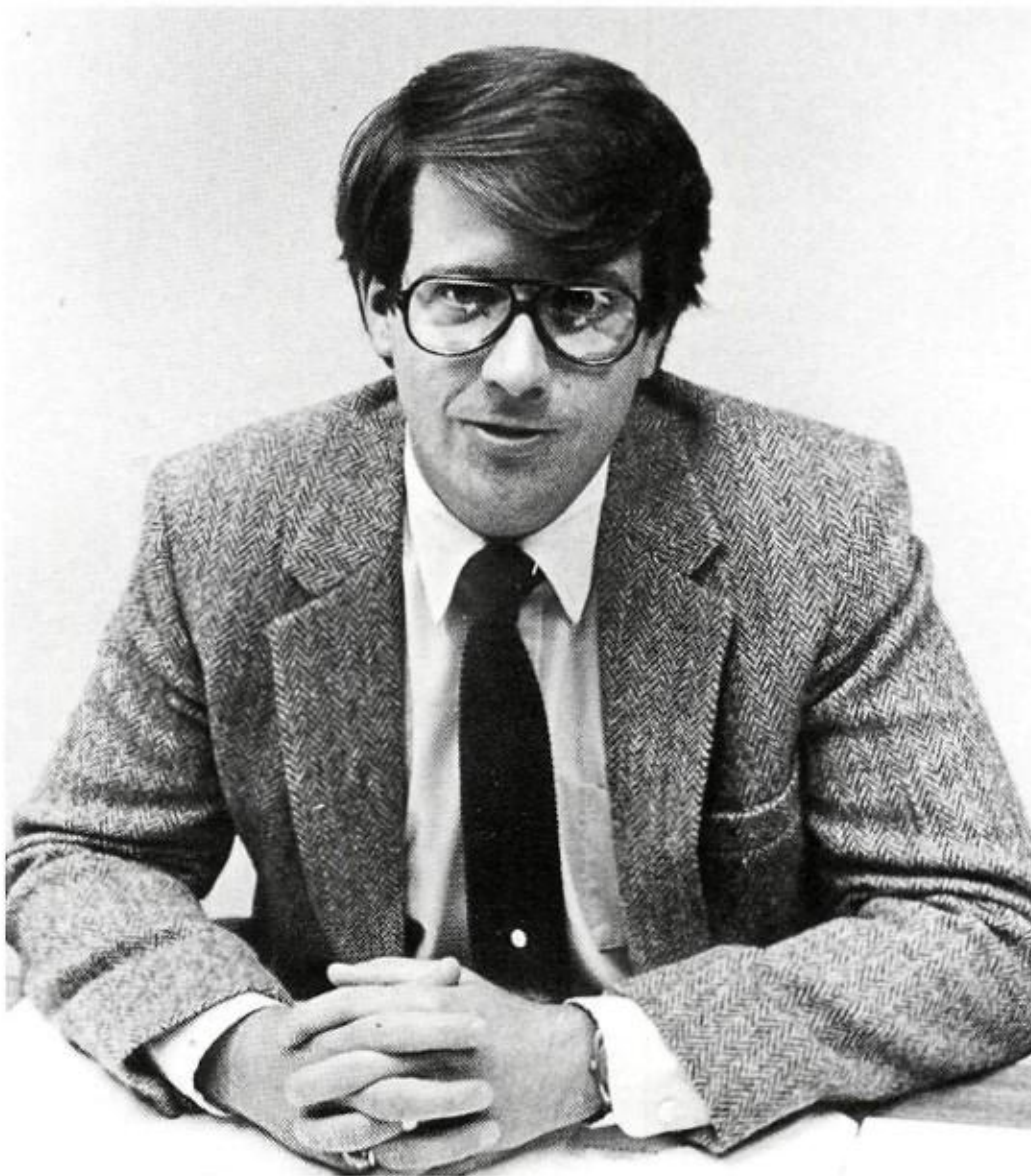

Be assured that our prayers and loving concern will continue to be with you.

Sincerely yours,

Community Days

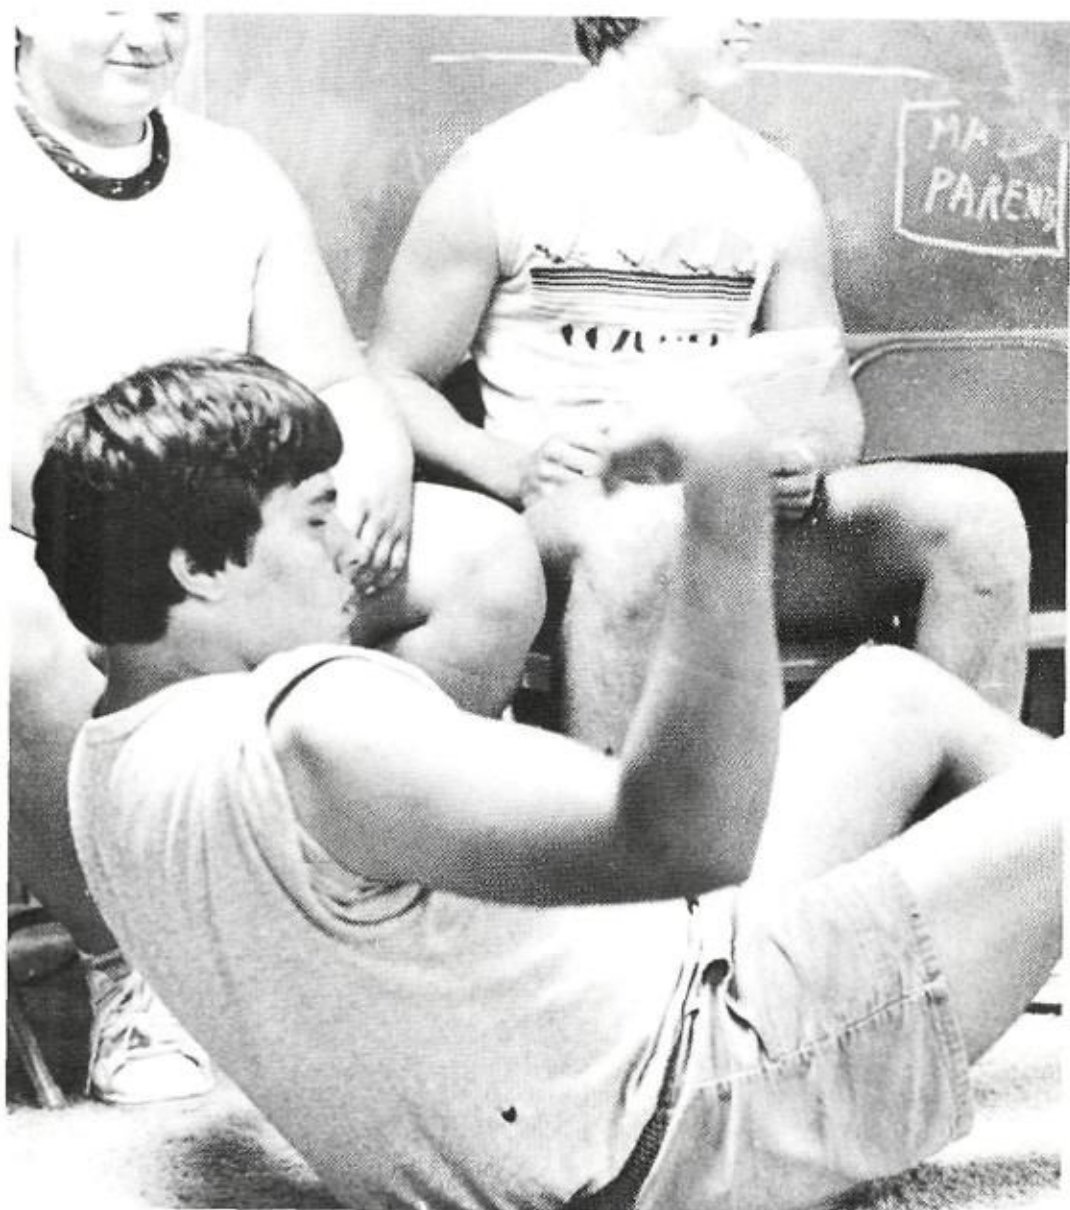

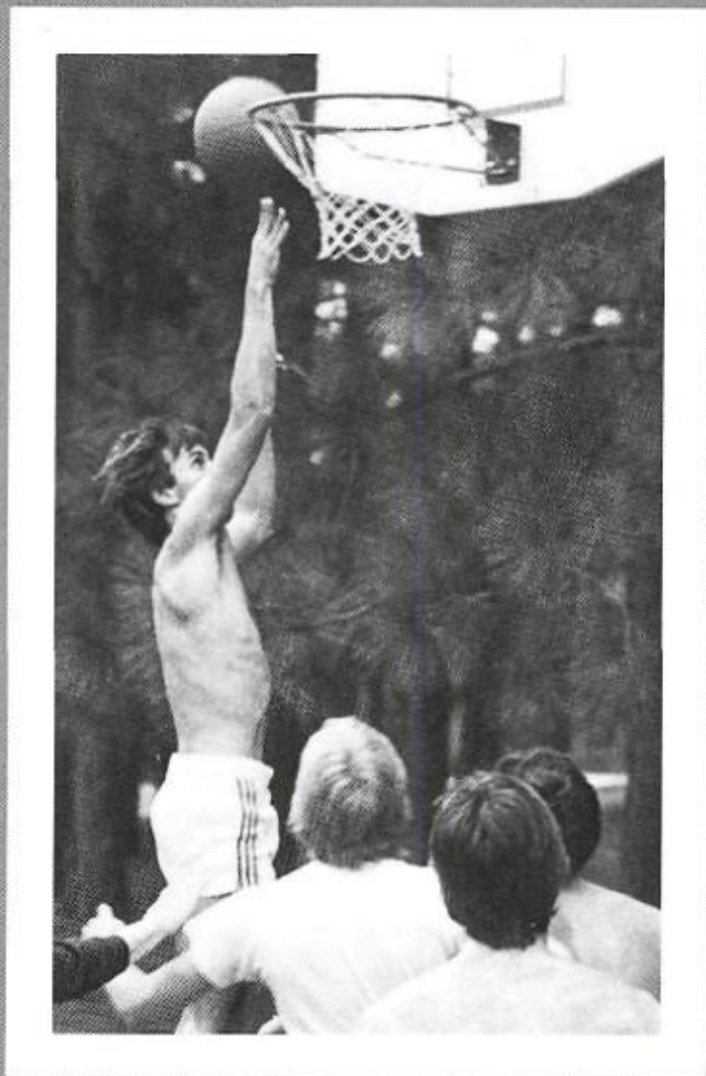

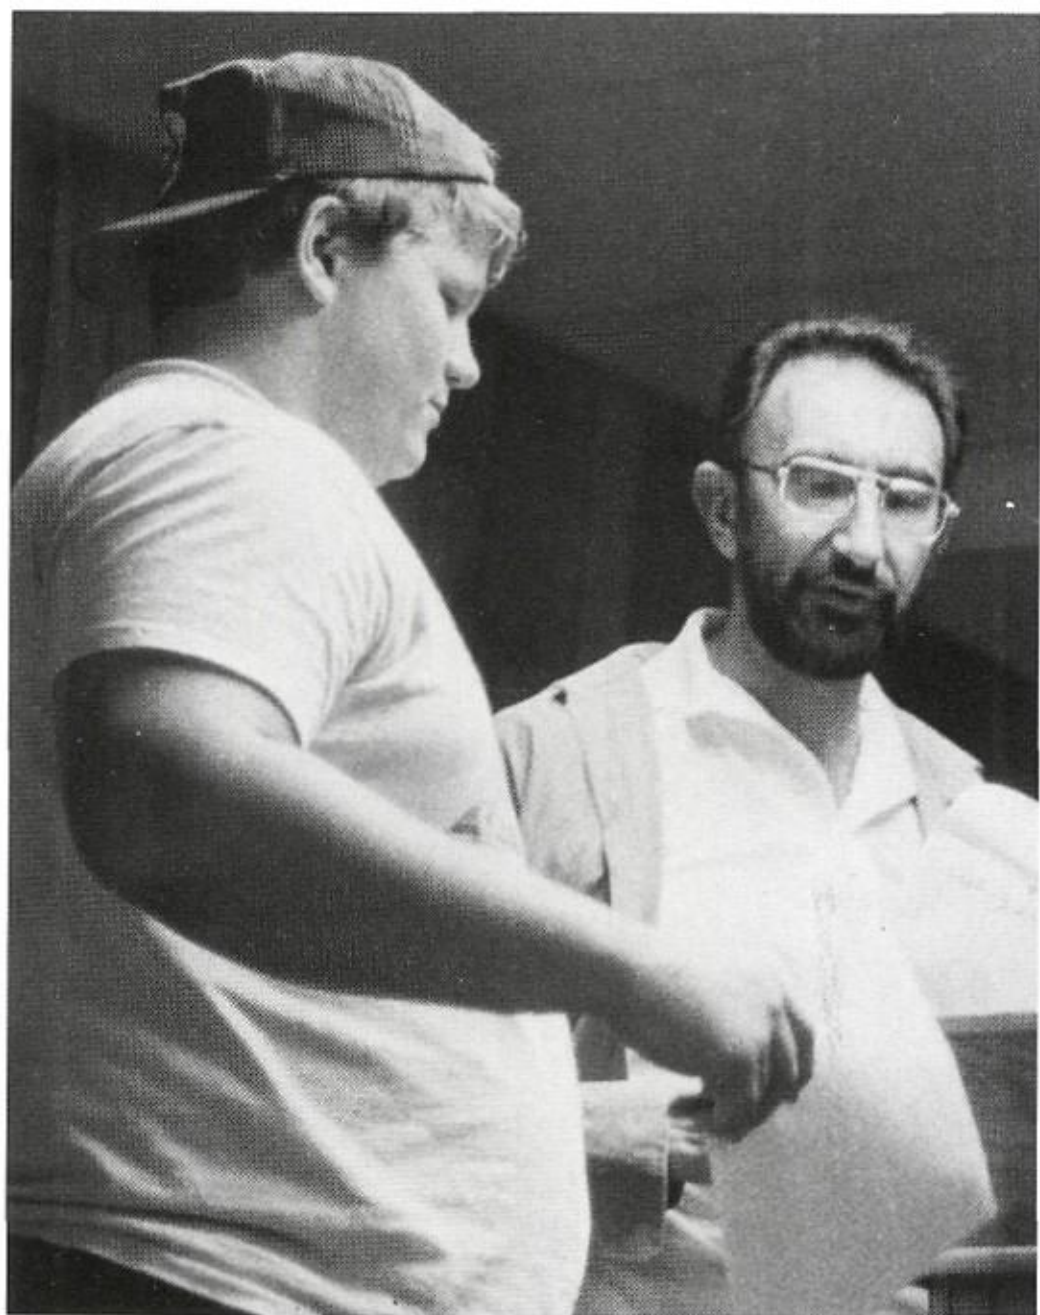

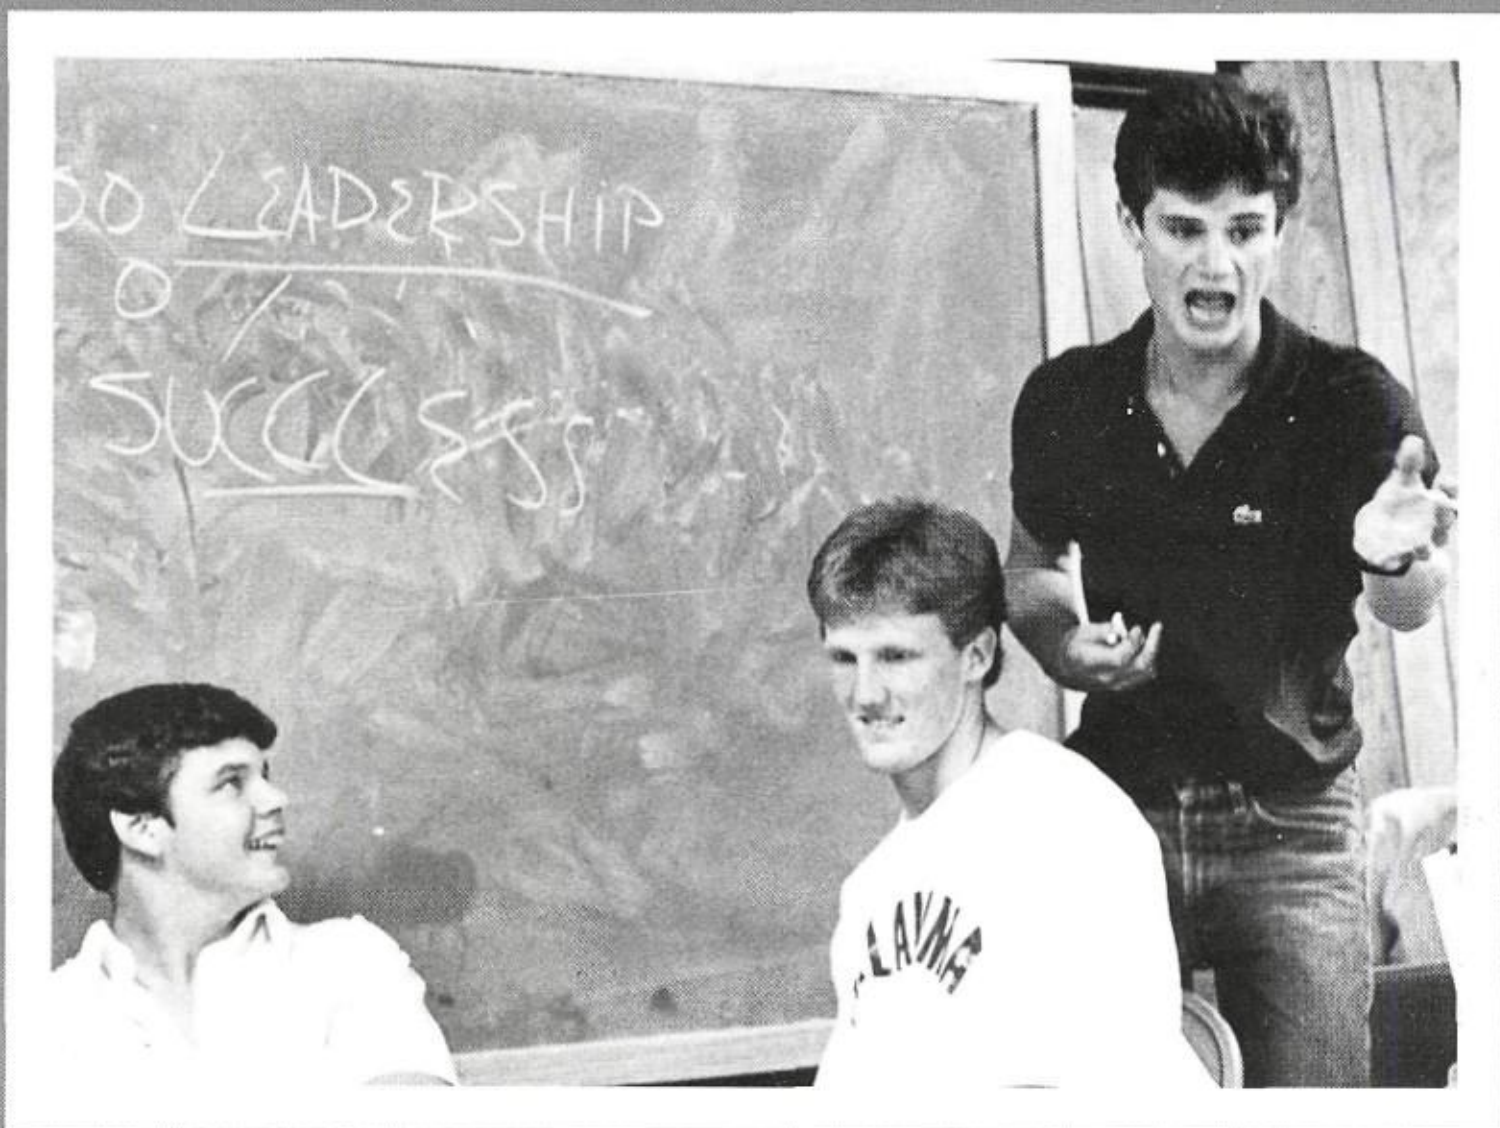

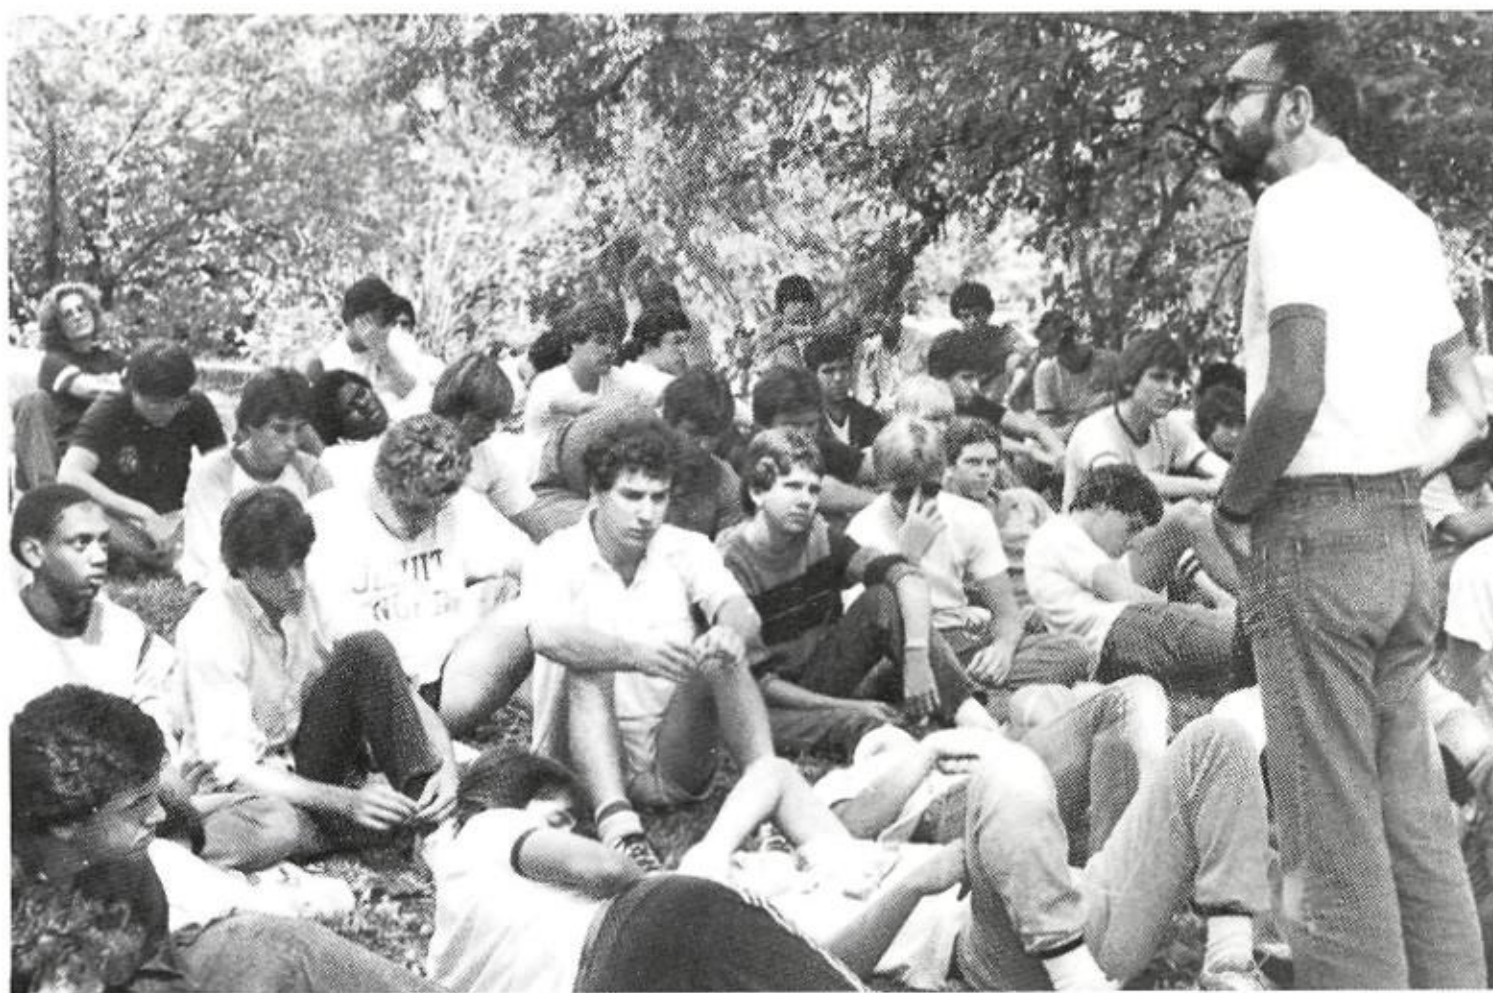

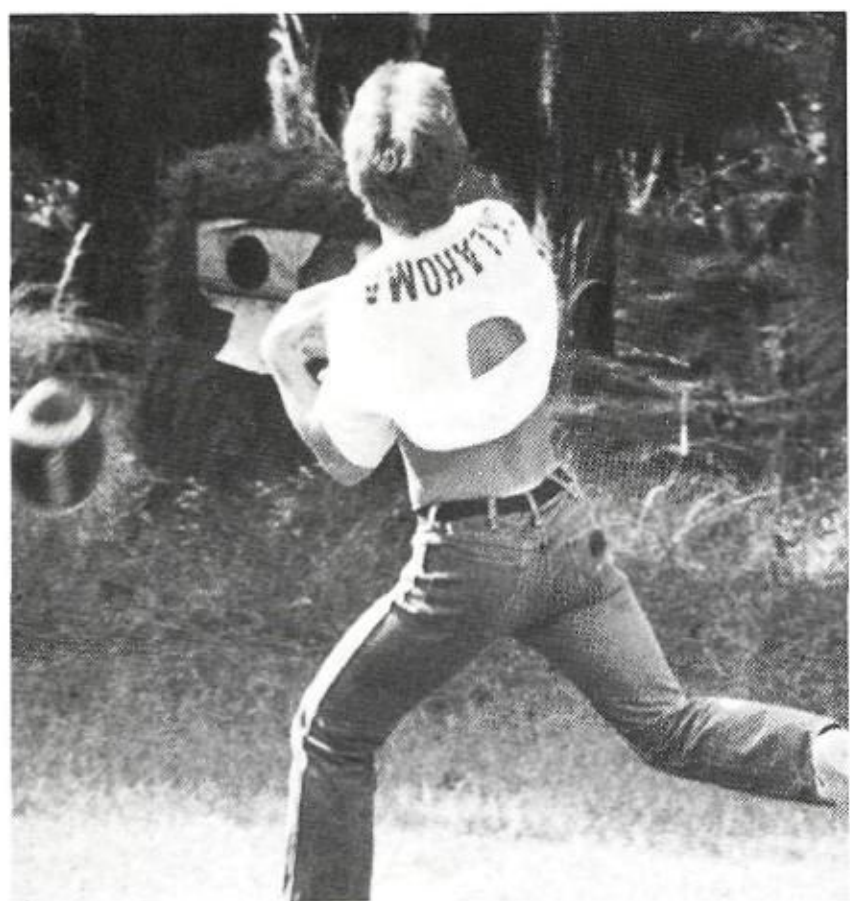

On October 9, the class of '84 began perhaps the most important activity of the year — Senior Community Days in Athens, Texas — intended to unify the class. The Senior Class unified, the entire Jesuit Community followed suit.

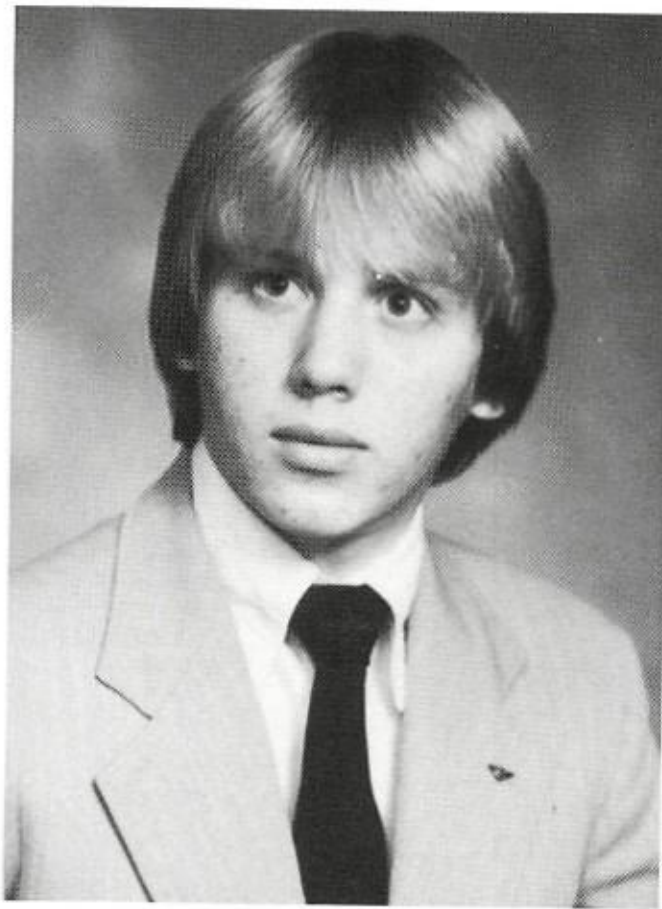

Every senior anticipated a three-day vacation; few took the initial meetings seriously. The second evening changed the class. Challenged to be assertive leaders, the class was invited to voice opinions during a candlelit "agape" (love feast). If only for that night, the class threw down the barriers and addressed one another not only as a peer, but as a person.

The situation at Community Days was ideal! There were no outside pressures or concerns to contend with. In that environment, the class forged a new and fragile relationship.

From the opening night jitters against City Champion Kimball, until the final tears shed after the heartbreaking loss to St. Thomas in the State Semifinals, the defending State Champion Ranger Football Team played inspired ball and faced the ups and downs of an exciting year of football. The year was full of setbacks which hindered the team, yet the season was also exciting and full of great plays by talented players. This year's team, faced with a tough non-district schedule, improved throughout and came of its own before district play. With a close victory against rival Bishop Lynch and a tough loss to Bishop Dunne, the Rangers ended regular season play with an even 5-5 record, 1-1 in district play, and a wildcard berth in the state playoffs. Traveling to Houston to face the St. Thomas Eagles, the eventual State Champs, the Rangers faced their toughest opponent of the season. The Rangers met the challenge put before them and fought toe to toe with the War Eagles before finally faltering 7-0 in a defensive struggle. The game was typical of the entire season and this Ranger Team, full of inspiration and much heart, yet hampered by injuries and key losses.

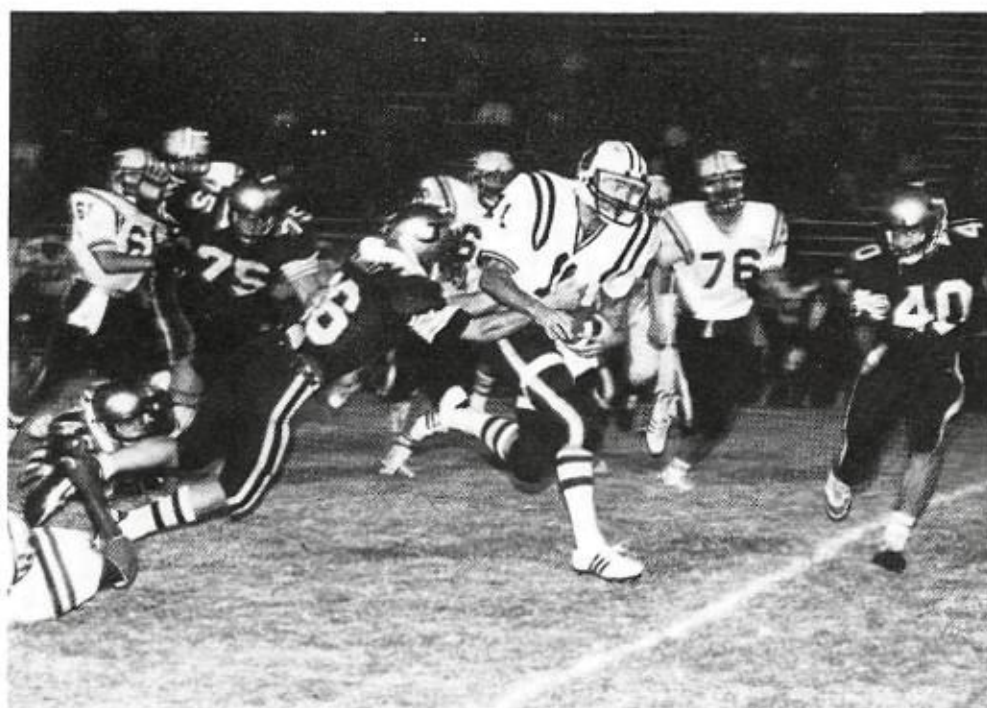

The year began against the Kimball Knights at home. With new faces and inexperienced players, the team took the field with optimism. After a close first quarter, turnovers and big plays proved too much . . . (cont. on p.94) for the Rangers and they left the field with a 37-7 defeat. The Rangers next faced the Thomas Jefferson Patriots at Loos Field, and this time, with a few changes, the Rangers prevailed 15-13. The game marked the appearance of running back turned quarterback David Kervin, who threw for one score and ran back a kickoff 66 yards to help in the next touchdown.

The Rangers saved their toughest performances for the two best teams they faced in regular season, the 5-A powers, Lewisville and Arlington Lamar. Against Lewisville, the Rangers proved they could play head to head with anyone, as they held the potent Lewisville offense to 17 points . . .

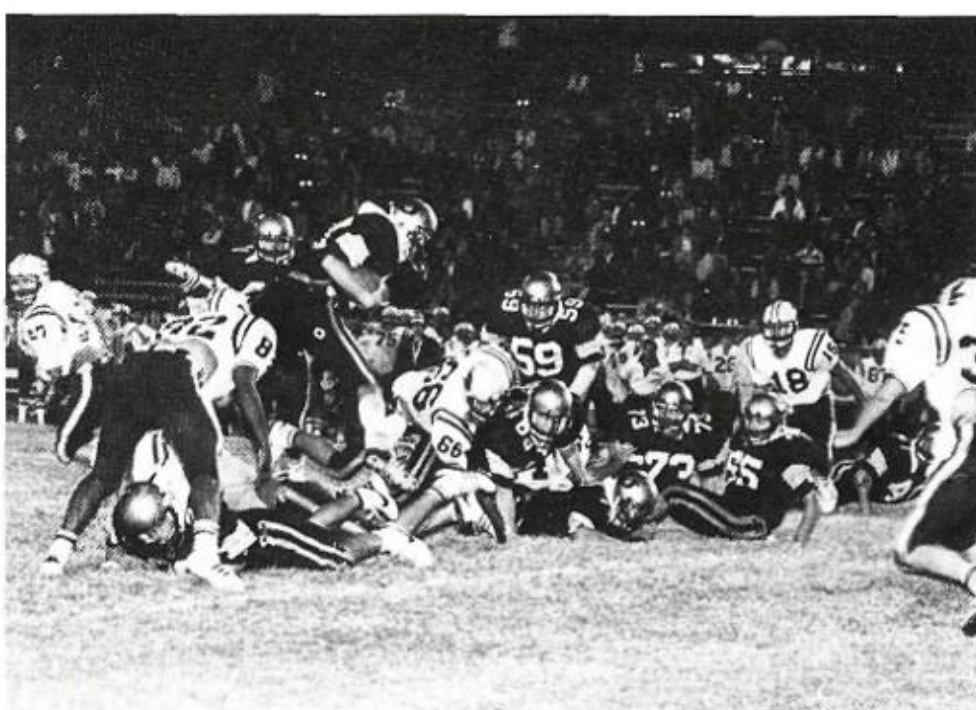

and drove inside the Farmer 10 yard line three times. Critical mistakes kept the Rangers from scoring touchdowns and all they could come away with was a 29 yard field goal by kicker Kelly Roach. Against the Lamar Vikings, the Rangers showed ball control and a stingy defense, mounting a quarter long drive that ended up in six points, and holding the Viking offense to only one touchdown. A last second field goal by Lamar proved the difference and once again the Rangers fell just short.

The Rangers traveled to Paris, Texas with a record of 1-4 in search of that missing ingredient. All the pieces fell together that night as the Rangers defeated the Wildcats 22-13. Down 7-0 at halftime, the Rangers regrouped and the offense began to roll, while the defense came up with the big plays. Kervin showed fine passing and the running was led by Jonathan Marquez and Robert Adams. Up by one, the defense came up with a crucial play after a Wildcat score. Going for two, the Wildcat quarterback was turned back by Chris Hansen and Bob Wunderlick . . . (cont. on p. 95) at the goal line. Turning in outstanding performances defensively were linebackers Carlos Miramontes and Eric Veteto, along with Peter Cook, Rodney Riddell, and Ricky Lindley, who had an interception. The next week the Rangers tuned up for district against Arlington Martin in an easy one, that ended with the Rangers on top 35-15. Kervin again did it all, contributing over 200 yards on offense and Adams scored three times, on runs of 37, 4, and 7 yards. The offense compiled over 300 yards and the defense made the big plays, with Miramontes, Galloway and Lindley leading the way.

Homecoming came next and with it came arch-rival Bishop Lynch. The Rangers struck quick and hard, scoring 23 points in the first half against the Friars. The defense played incredibly and Kervin and Marquez ran and passed all over the Friar defense. The Rangers made it interesting in the second half as the offense stalled and the defense allowed three big pass plays, accounting for 21 Friar points. The Rangers prevailed in the end, 23-21, as the offense ran out the clock. The Rangers traveled to Fort Worth to face now non-district opponent Nolan, and soundly defeated the Vikings in a blowout. The game showed lots of new faces as the first team sat out the second half. Highlighting the game between the touchdown passes by Kervin to Marquez and Wunderlick, and the running scores by Marquez and Adams, was the unveiling of 275 lb. tailback, Bart "Herschel" Gill.

With a record of 5-4 and 1-0 in District play, the showdown at Falcon Field against Bishop Dunne would turn out to be the big disappointment for the Ranger squad. The Rangers scored first . . . (cont. on p. 98) on a tough run by Adams after a long kickoff return by Kervin. The Falcons scored next on a drive that was aided by 45 yards on penalties assessed to the Ranger defense, for roughing the punter calls and late hits. Right before the half, the Falcons scored again on a long field goal and the Rangers were behind. The Falcons added another score on a long run by their quarterback, going up 17-6. The Rangers marched down the field and scored on a short run and added a two point conversion, bringing the score to 17-14. The Falcons managed to hold on to the victory.

Earning a wild card berth with a 1-1 District record, the Rangers met St. Thomas in Houston. The game was purely a defensive classic, as both teams played well. The Rangers were led by Miramontes, Cook, Galloway, Lindley, Marquez, and Veteto on defense. Offensively, the Rangers were hurt by injuries to Kervin and drive-ending penalties. The Eagles were the only team to score on a long run off a reverse and the game ended at 7-0. It was a bitter loss, but a tough, gritty performance by the Rangers. Tears were shed, but all could be satisfied on a fine season for the Semi-Finalists.

In 1983, the Jesuit Cross Country team had a very successful season despite many injuries and setbacks. Second year coach Charles DeLong showed the experience he had gained from his first year as the team made a sharp improvement. Beginning in August's scorching heat and ending at a chilly state meet at Flag Pole Hill, the Ranger harriers competed very well against many larger schools throughout the season.

The Rangers faired well in the TCIL District 2-AAAA finishing second but showing some strong individual performances. The team's depth showed here as the Junior Varsity team overwhelmingly won their district competition. Mike Young had a very good day finishing second in Varsity District and John Bennett won the J.V. competition. In the State Championship race Frank Hernandez had an impressive finish leading all Jesuit runners.

Captains were Mike Specks and Mike Pellegrini who both suffered injuries at crucial times during the season. The MVP of the team was Mike Young and the Ranger Heart Award was presented to Frank Hernandez. Varsity letterman were Frank Hernandez, Mike Young, Mike Pellegrini, Ricky Robinson, Chip Curry, Eric Harrison, Chris Doerbeck, and Gerard Carroll.

Ranging from

Brookhaven to Harvard, representatives from over one hundred and twenty five colleges and universities assembled at Jesuit for the annual College Night on September 20. This event is held every fall for Dallas area Catholic high schools, its location alternating between Jesuit and Ursuline each year. It gives students and their parents time to become familiar with choices for continued education.

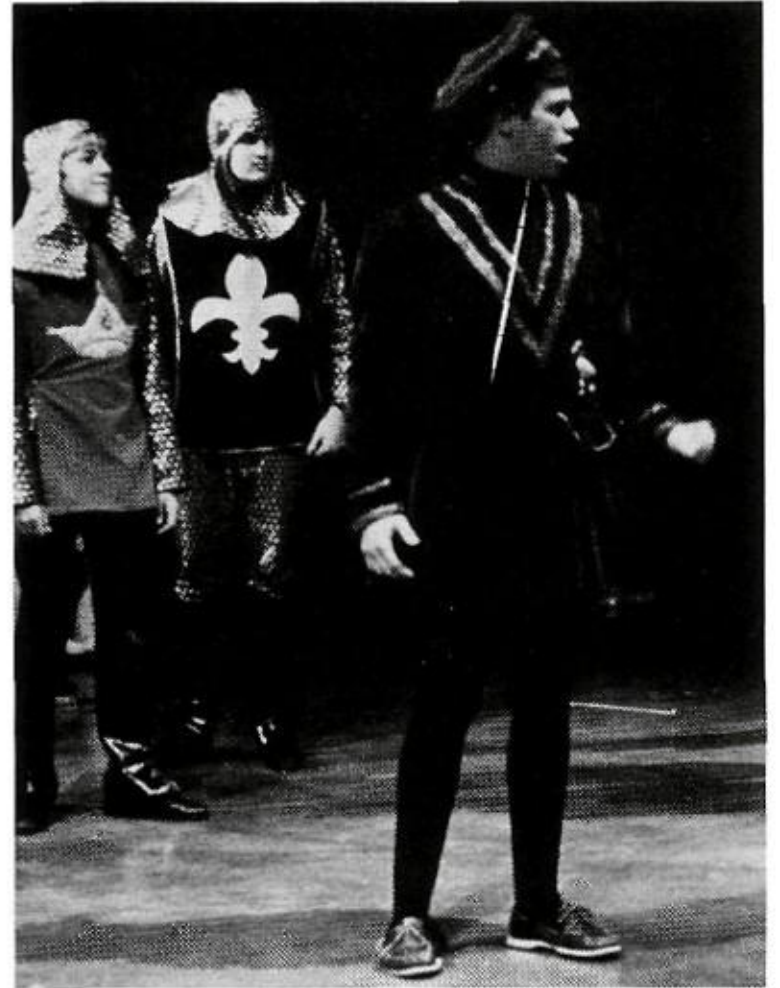

At approximately 6:30 p.m. the representatives arrived at Jesuit with slides, student bulletins, and applications. Beginning at 7:00 p.m., the evening was arranged with four 25-minute sessions, a ten-minute break following each. Some colleges had prepared presentations; others made themselves open for questions.

At a time when one could get lost searching for the right college choice for himself, this function was very helpful and informative. The juniors and seniors all seemed pleased with the opportunity to attend. They also had the option of seeing various representatives during the school day. Jesuit students should be grateful for the people who allow this setup to exist. In many neighboring schools, a chance like this does not exist.

WILLIAM GLEASON The CLUMSY CUSTARD HORROR SHOW

The CCHS, a full length comedy performed on the Jesuit stage, was a smash hit enjoyed by everyone, especially the actors. The Philothespic Society worked for two long months to give a successful performance.

The play was filled with one-liners that meshed into a satire of old monster movies, a good versus evil kind of thing.

It was similar to a Jimi Hendrix experience because once you are experienced you never forget. Who could forget the Turkey Spider scene performed with accuracy, skill and:

- a) brilliant choreography?
- b) a pregnant rock?

Or what about the Pennies from heaven with all of its planning, forethought and about $8.46 in change?

Ever since the CCHSAICCR haven't you wanted to get aHEAD or eat a fly or snuggle up with some POLLY-ESTER?

The opinions are my own so:

"PHLBBT"

Chris "Worfle" Wolf

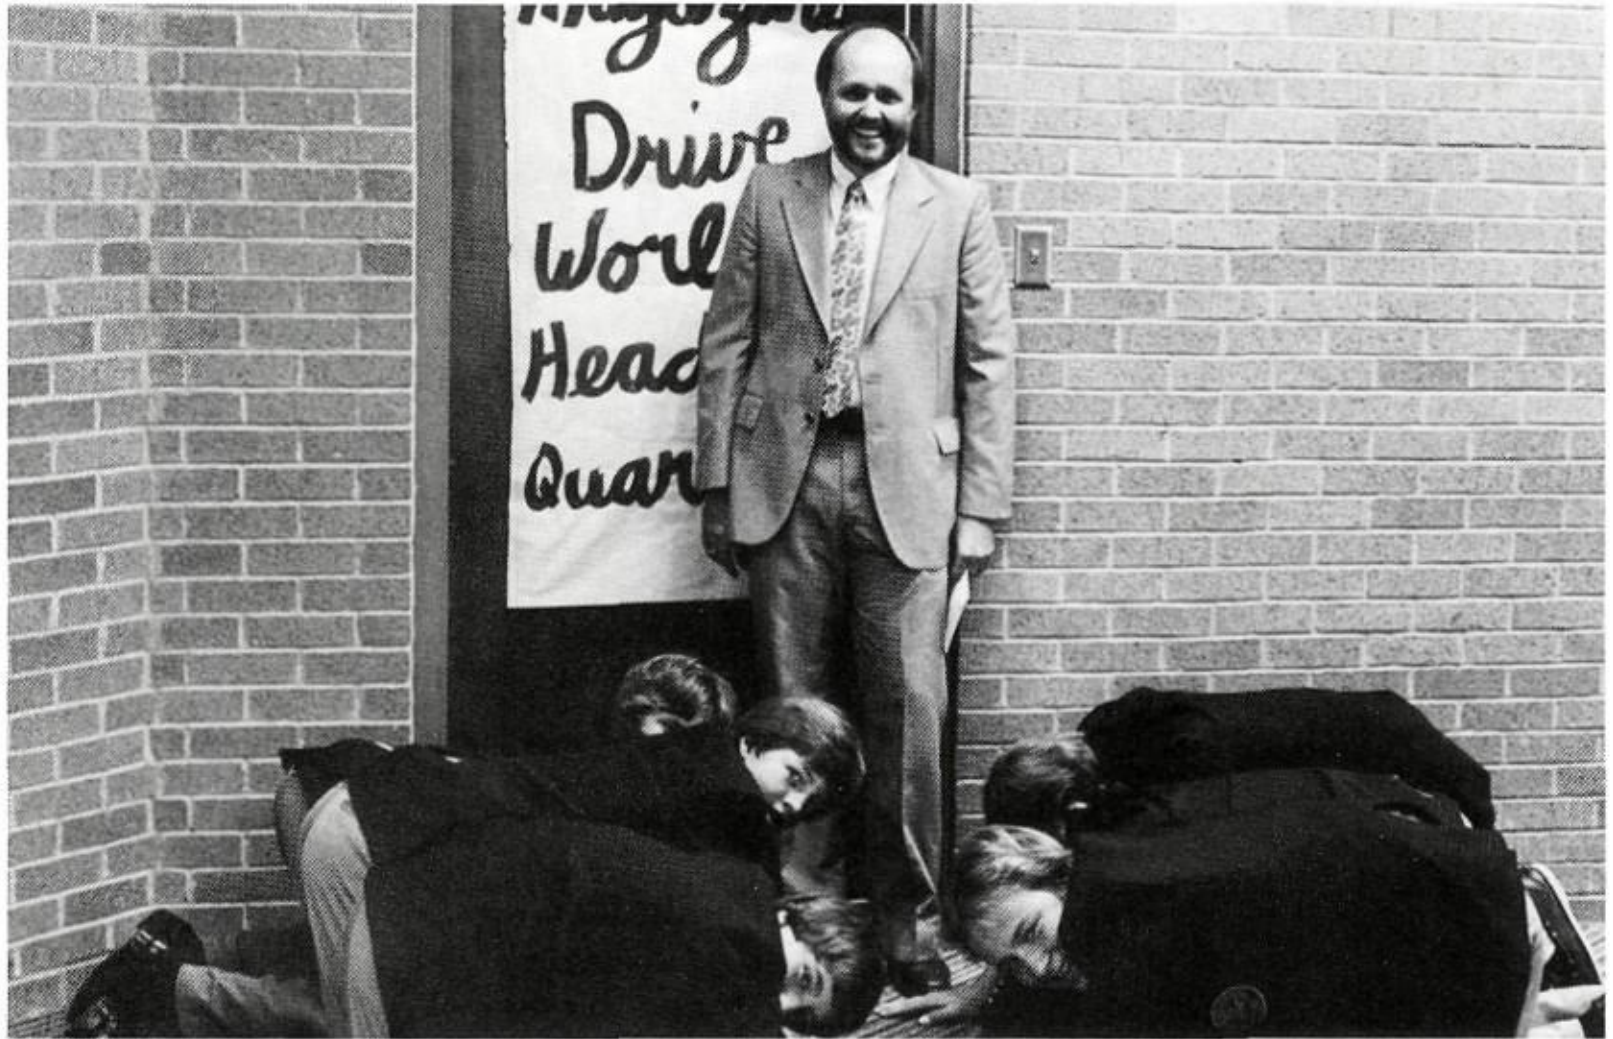

Oh yeah! It was a great pleasure working with the Philothespic Society and Mrs. Felice. I think they deserve a big round of applause.

Memorial Day Ceremony

Although many of Jesuit's Alumni have served in the Armed Forces of the United States, it has been our good fortune that relatively few have lost their lives in service.

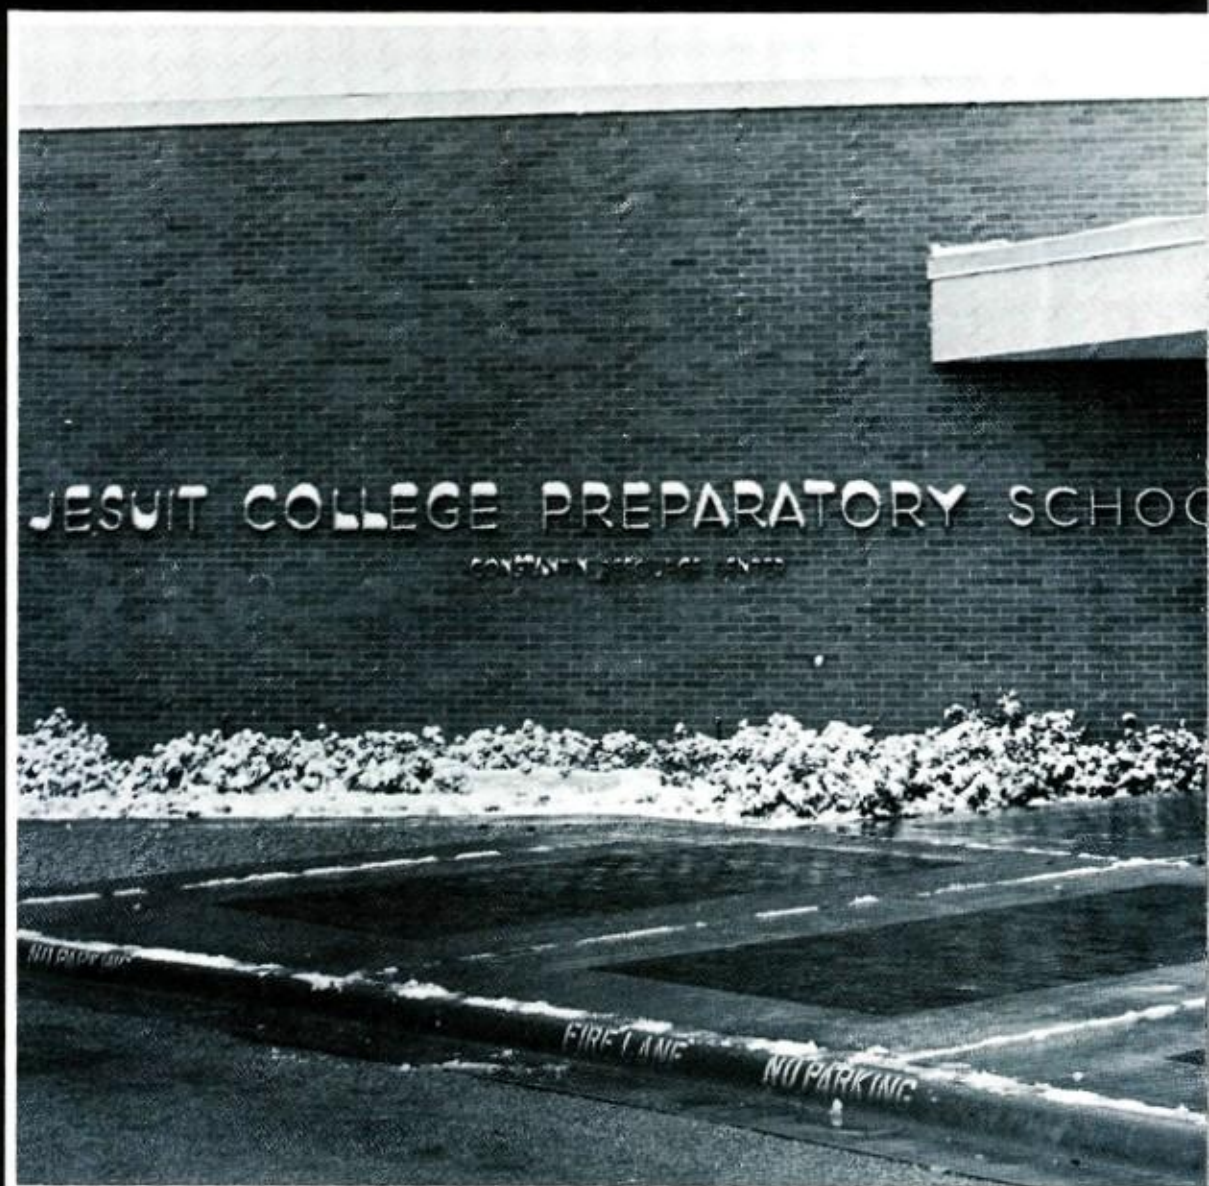

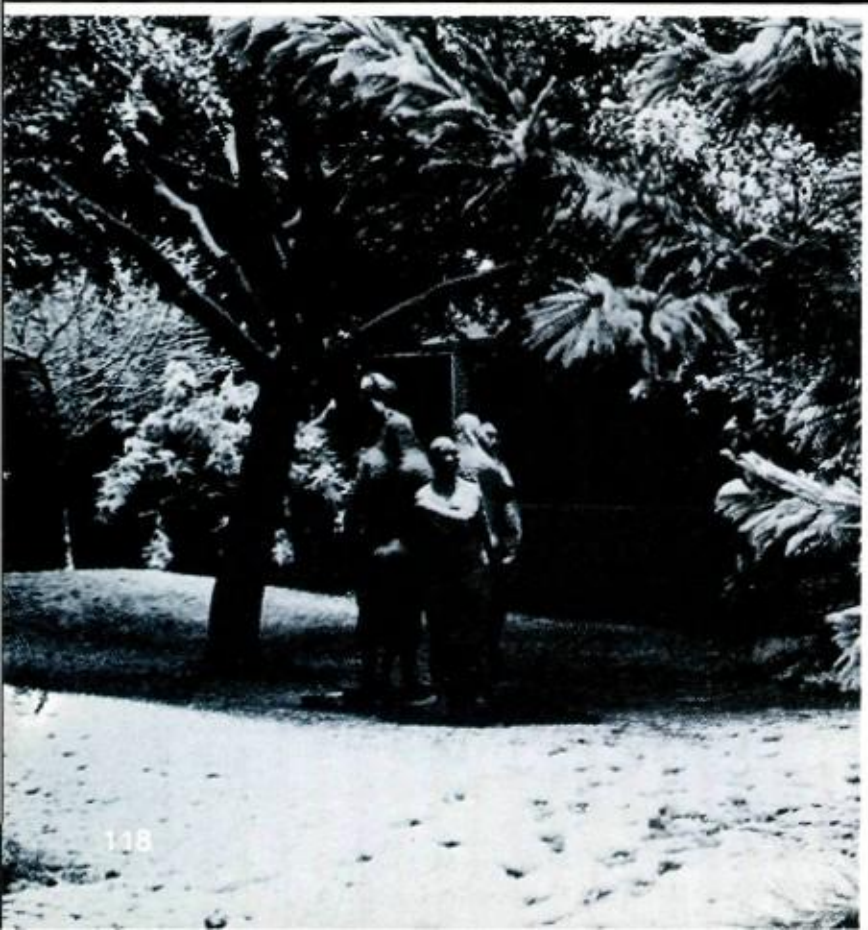

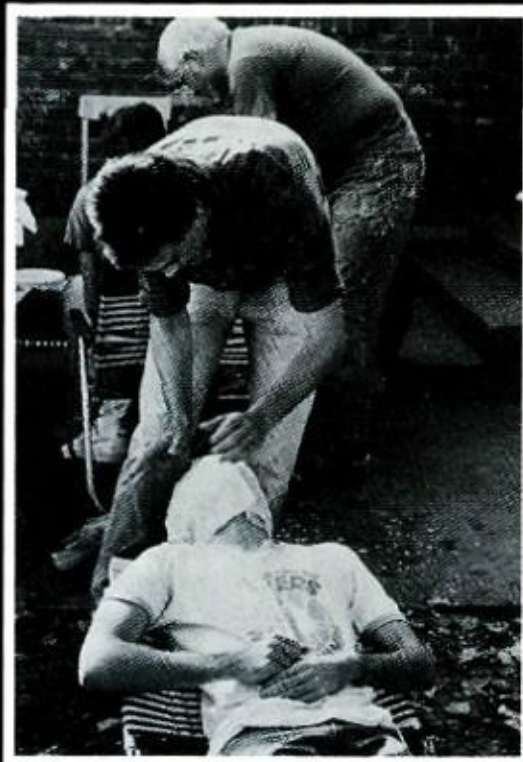

Those who have made the ultimate sacrifice, however, are now memorialized with a grey marble monument that stands at the front entrance of Jesuit College Preparatory School — in the shadow of the flag.

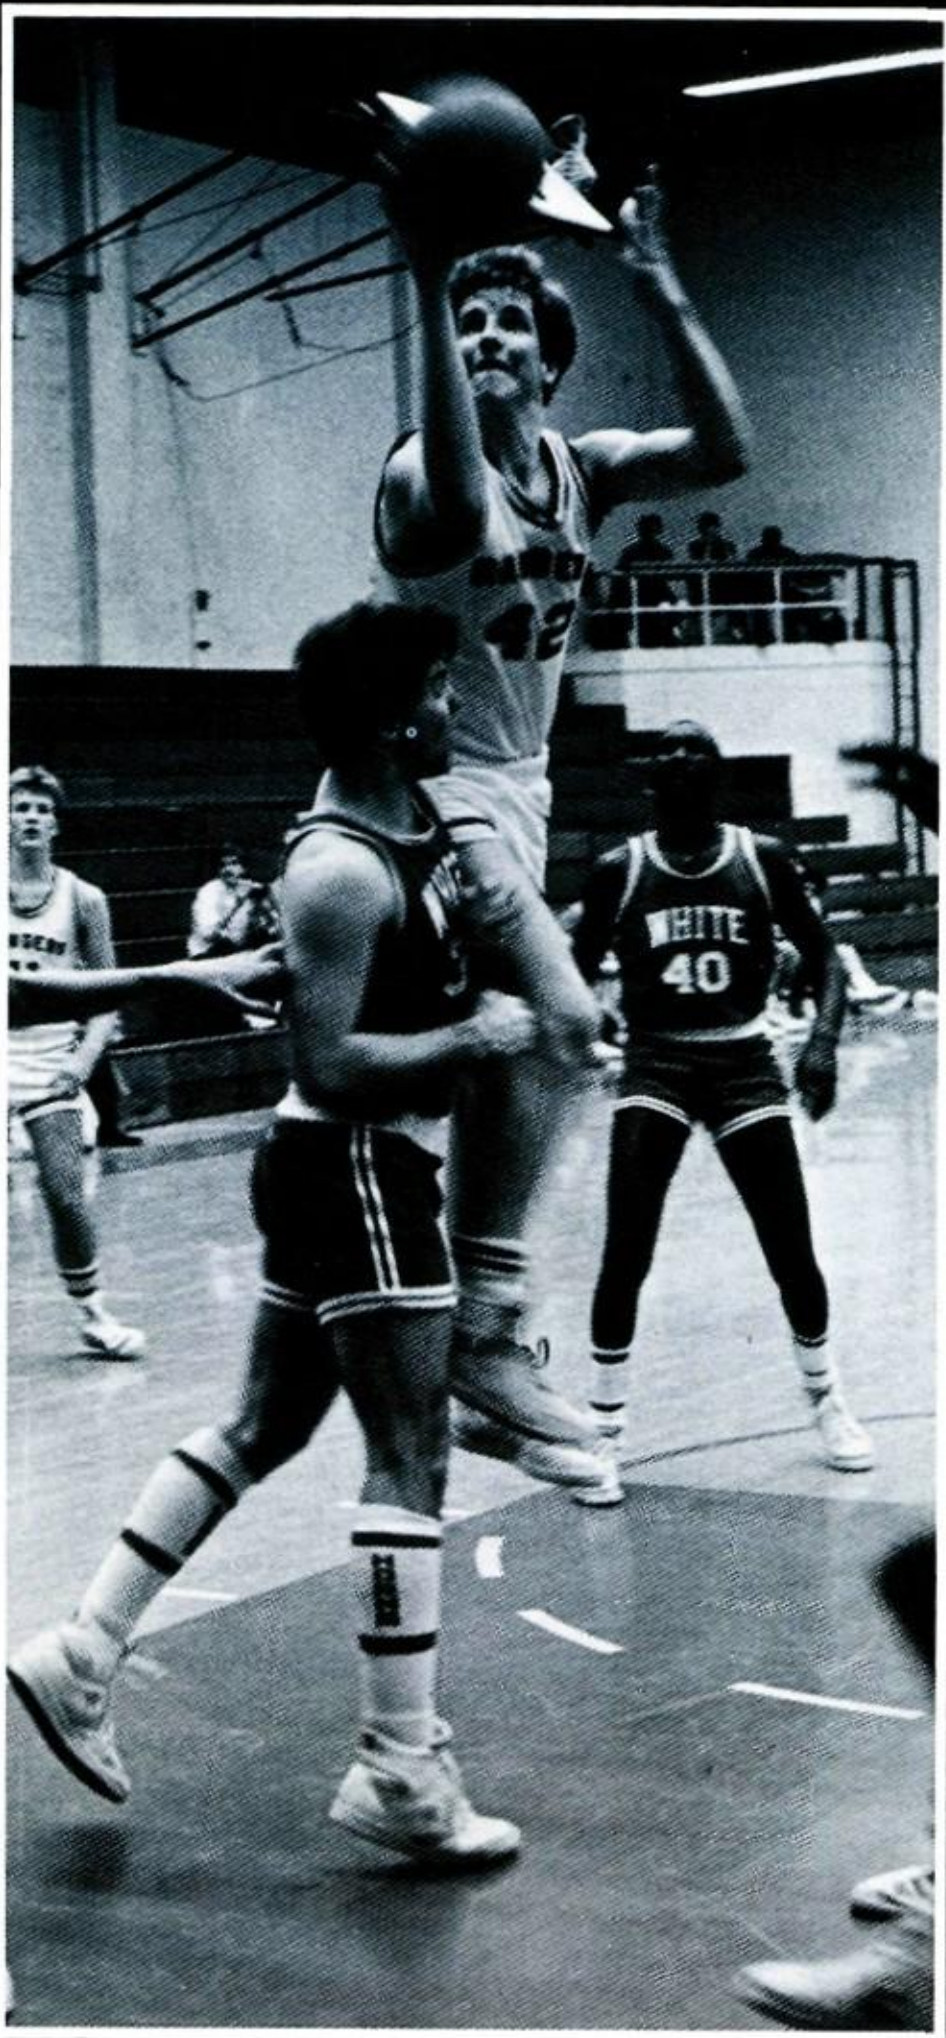

Through the good offices of Mr. John Schanz, who originated the idea, created the design, and covered the costs of execution, the names of six Jesuit Alumni (together with their year of graduation) are inscribed in permanent memory upon the stone. Jerome J. McGinnis '43 was our first casualty — in World War II (February, 1945). Joseph P. Lostetter '51 was the next — in the Korean conflict (October, 1952). Harry J. Schanz '54 lost his life when his ship was torpedoed during the Vietnam War (October, 1972). James Bean '65 was killed in the Vietnam War. Pilot Michael G. Humphries '67 died in a mid-air crash over New Mexico (April, 1979). And Michael F. Brown '72 was lost off the coast of Iran when his plane was said to have exploded in mid-air (August, 1982). No other Alumni service casualties are known to us at this time.

Mr. Al Lostetter arranged for the laying of the foundation and the setting of the stone.

The monument was dedicated with a service for the whole student body and the families of the Deceased on Veterans' Day in November. The Jesuit Band played for the raising of a special flag flown over the U.S. Capitol Building and procured for Jesuit by Mr. and Mrs. Schanz. Mr. and Mrs. John Humphries provided a red, white, and blue spray of flowers for the occasion. Vietnam Veteran David Oglesby led a prayer, and Fr. Patrick Koch, S.J., '44 read thumbnail biographies of the six deceased veterans. Veteran Dwight McCready led the pledge of allegiance. A number of family members were in attendance at the ceremony.

The 1983-84 Ranger Basketball Season resembled the stock market, it had its ups and downs and it was very unpredictable. One minute there would be a turnover, the next a dunk. The Rangers posted a deceiving 8-17 record marred by 6 games lost by 5 points or less. Jesuit, a very talented team with inside muscle seemed to lack experience in pressure situations. In some games their unmatched hustle and determination made up for their greenness, but this year district 2-AAAA sent a hungrier Bishop Lynch squad to the State Tournament.

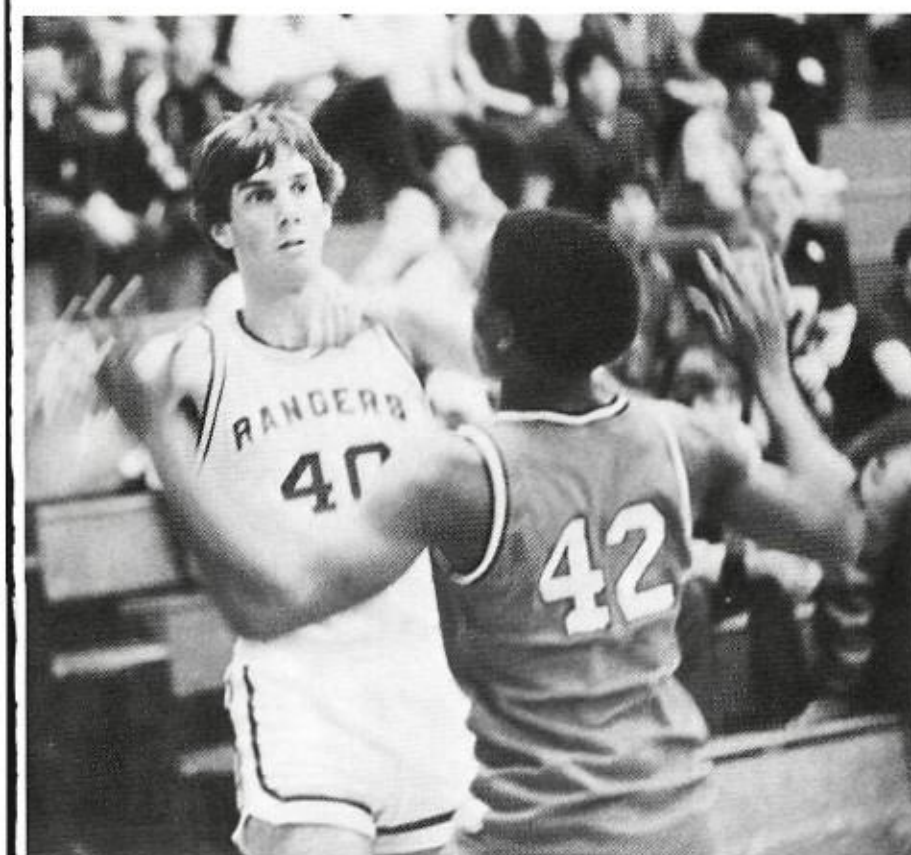

Steve O'Keefe, this year's MVP, and Tim Montpas had superlative offensive seasons with O'Keefe leading the team in rebounds and Montpas leading the squad in scoring. Chris Bearden and Matt Martin turned in excellent defensive efforts. Bearden led the team in floor burns and bruises while Martin played the role of intimidator and is this year's human highlight film. Doug Hafer, a big play man himself, shows great promise and potential. He had a streaky shooting year but settled himself when he finally etched out a starting position. Joe Tillotson and Vic Howell will return next season with confidence from all-around seasons. Tillotson was second in assists behind Bearden, while Howell burned the nets from twenty feet out. Returning Lettermen include Dodd Crutcher, a strong rebounder, Cameron Maun, an aggressive swing man, Mike Goodnight, a fine all-around athlete, and J. D. Ramirez, a smooth forward.

Senior Pat Ryan, a definite crowd pleaser, had a flair for the dramatic playing a spot role on this year's squad. This was a painful year for the returning seniors being turned away after contributing to last year's State Championship effort. Many valuable minutes of experience were yielded to this year's underclassmen, so expect big things in the years to come from the Jesuit Round-Ballers.

Wrestling at Jesuit is kind of like being a bit of food on a moustache; it only gets noticed if it's in the way or if it tastes good. In years past, Jesuit wrestling has been over-shadowed by success in other sports. No crowds have rocked the Sportatorium (thanks, Bearden), as at the ever popular Big J-St. Mark's basketball games. No one holds victory parties after seeing a six-minute struggle for sweat-soaked supremacy. But this year the grapplers have given the school something to cheer about. And precious few people know it.

Ranger wrestling has done remarkably well this year. Compared to other schools, Jesuit wrestling is at a distinct disadvantage. We have no "feeder" program (kids start wrestling in elementary school and go on to wrestle in the same school district); this is what makes St. Mark's and the Irving schools so tough. The academic demands of Jesuit preclude two-a-days, and public schools do not have to worry as much about eligibility requirements. Most of Jesuit's sports budget is consumed by the "big" sports (football, basketball, etc.), so wrestling is not well funded here. The coach, Gary Krumm, takes time off his regular job to instruct the team; he is not employed by the school.

In spite of these difficulties, the Rangers have an undefeated record in dual meets and have placed in every tournament they've entered. Several members of the team figure to qualify for the state tournament by taking one of the top two places in regional competition. The team has consistently done well against such grappling bastions as MacArthur and Trinity. In light of the odds, the Rangers' success is, to say the least, remarkable.

Seniors Chris Madden and Hugh Alexander, who comprised the top debate team, led the squad with an impressive amount of victories. Chris and Hugh finished third at the season opener at the University of Texas at Arlington. At the next tournament, St. Marks, they improved their record by taking first place in a field of nearly one hundred teams. This performance was repeated at the Burleson High School tournament, where they went undefeated for a second tournament. Their crowning achievement was a first place finish at the national Montgomery Bell Academy Debate Tournament in Nashville, Tennessee.

Trip to Mexico

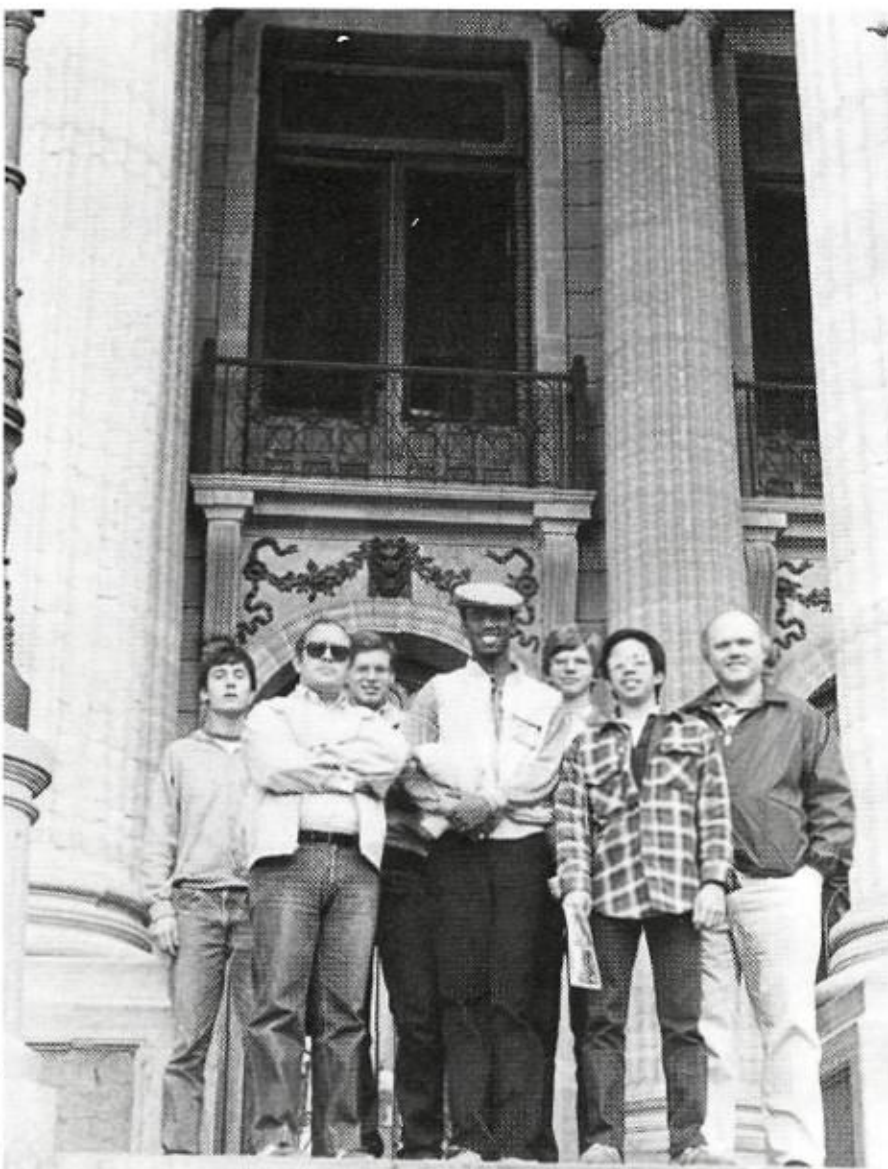

SPANISH CLUB TOURS MEXICO

On November 17th, Mr. Marion, accompanied by Seniors Paul Acker, Steve Finegan, Lou Guerra, Darryl Koif and John Lobb, along with Juniors Andy Lavin and Mike Mullen, set out on a ten day tour of Mexico.

Our first step was Mexico City where we visited such national treasures as the Palace of Fine Arts and the National Palace with its beautiful murals representing the history of Mexico. At Teotihuacan we explored the huge Sun and Moon Temples. In Mexico City we walked more miles than I care to remember, trying to absorb some of the ways of life seen in that beautiful city.

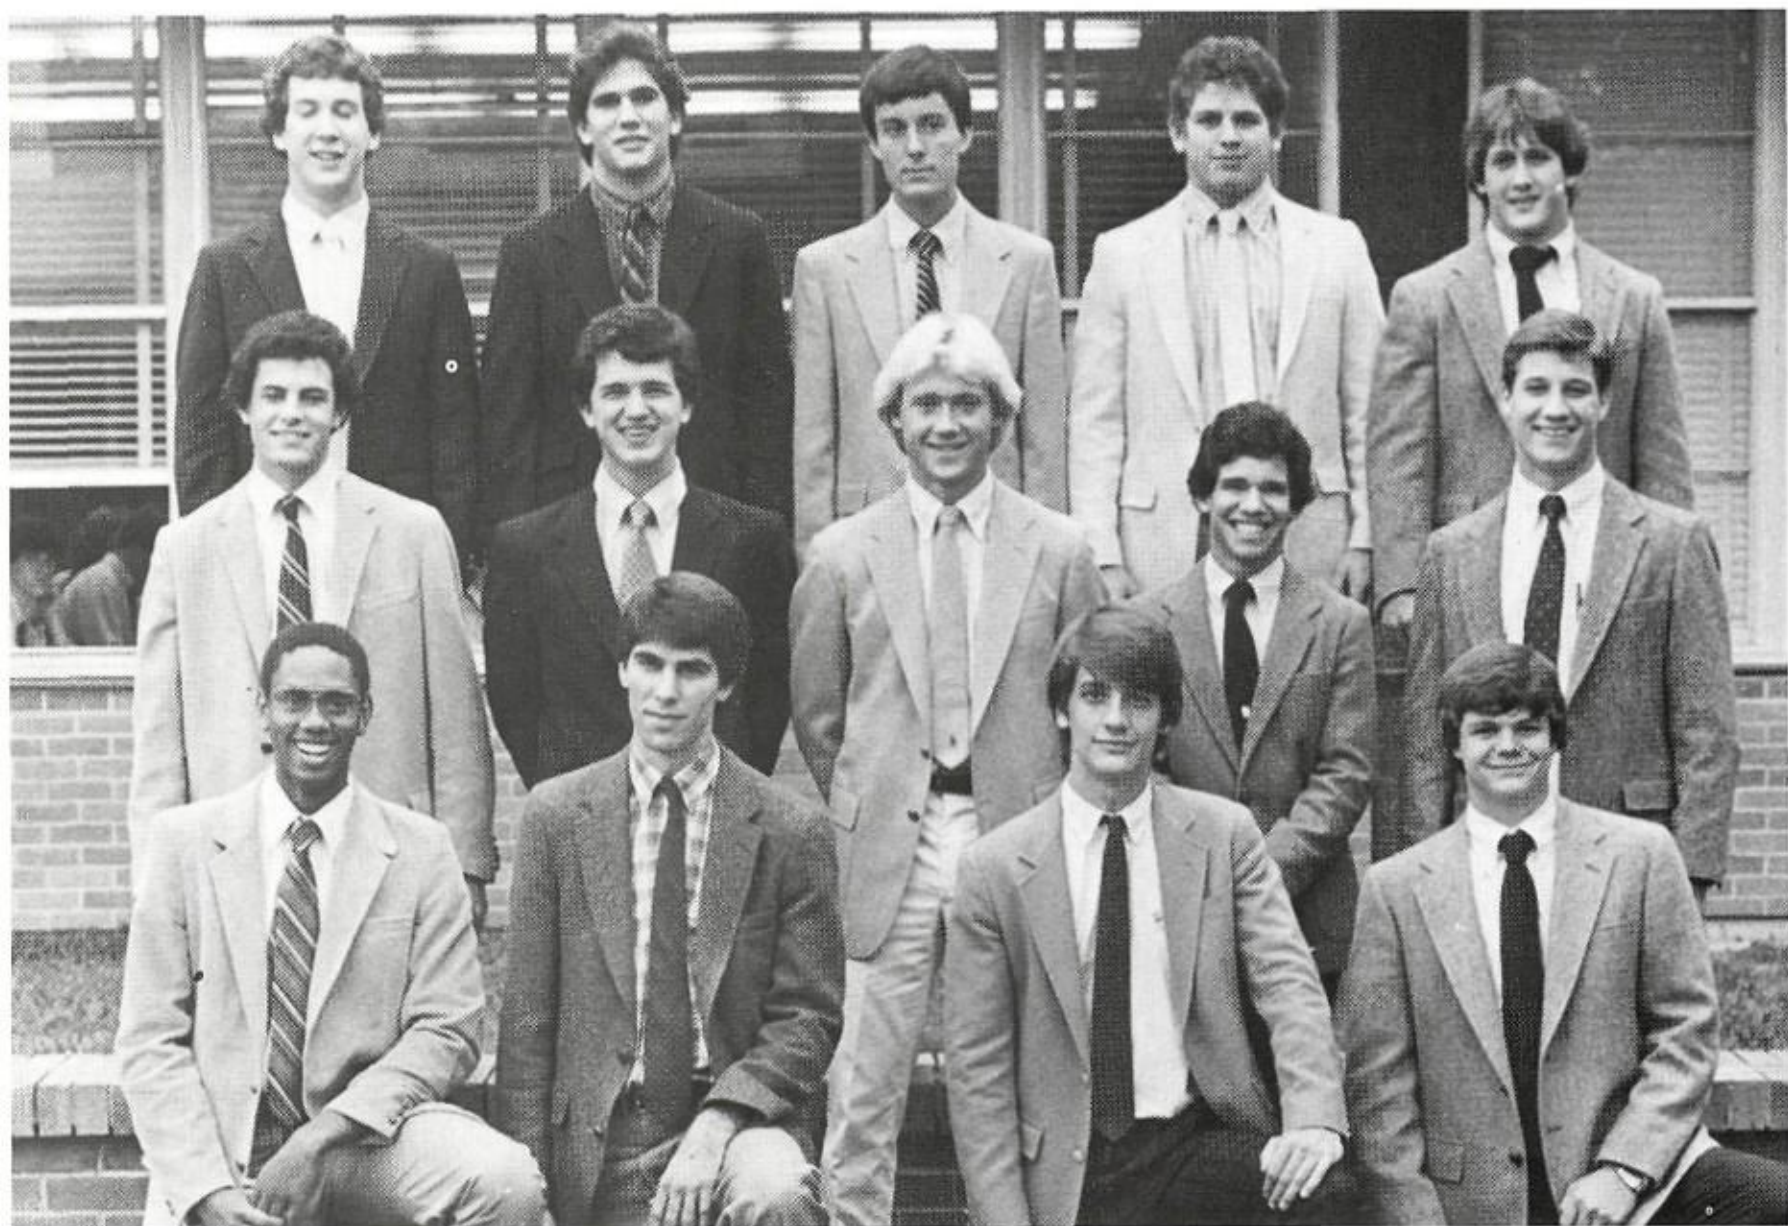

Some of the other highlights of Mexico City were the Ballet Folklórico and Chapultepec Park with its beautiful Castle on Grasshopper Hill. We visited San Miguel de Allende with its inspiring cathedral and Guanajuato with its impressive Spanish Fort, beautiful cathedrals and famous Hidalgo Market. After a day in Taxco (the silver capital of Mexico), we were off to Acapulco and the last leg of our journey.

To say we all had a great time would be a monumental understatement. Even though we came home exhausted, knowing that we all had loads of schoolwork to catch up on, it was an experience we will all look back on with a lot of happy memories. I don't think any of us will ever forget those beautiful cities; friendly people; Jesuit students practicing fractured Spanish; Mr. Marion patiently rounding all of us up and counting heads; Father Zinnamon popping in to wish us a Happy Thanksgiving; Acker getting sick on fresh fruit and Koif and Lobb landing in the bay when they missed the platform on the parachute ride.
